Not Independent

We are paid commissions by life insurance product providers and the owners of Financial Planning Advice Australia have a commercial interest in a financial product (Atticus SMA). This means we do not provide independent, impartial or unbiased financial advice. In all other cases, we charge a fee for our advice services and do not receive commissions or other payments from product providers.

Why am I receiving this document?

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) will help you decide whether to use the services that are offered by Keystone Wealth Pty Ltd*. It contains information about:

- the services we offer and their cost
- any conflicts of interest which may impact the services
- how we are remunerated, and
- how we deal with complaints if you are not satisfied with our services.

In this document 'we' and 'us' refers to Keystone Wealth.*

When we provide you with financial planning services you may receive:

- a Statement of Advice (SoA) or Record of Advice (RoA) which documents the advice we provide to you
- a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) which explains the products we have recommended.

The financial advice process

We recognise that the objectives and personal circumstances of each client are different.

What is right for one client may not be right for another.

Where we provide personal advice, we will listen to you to understand your objectives and circumstances. We will also ask questions to make sure we provide advice which is in your best interests.

When we first provide personal advice to you it will be explained thoroughly and documented in a SoA which you can take away and read.

The SoA will explain the basis for our advice, the main risks associated with the advice, the cost to you of implementing the advice, the benefits we receive and any conflicts of interest which may influence the advice.

For administration platforms, managed funds and personal risk insurance products we will provide you with a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS). This contains information to help you understand the product being recommended.

At all times you are able to contact us and ask questions about our advice and the products we recommend.

You can provide instructions to us in writing, via phone or via email.

We may provide further advice to you to keep your plan up to date for changes in your circumstances, changes in the law and changes in the economy and products.

If we provide further advice it will typically be documented in a RoA which we retain on file. You can request a copy of the RoA document at any time up to 7 years after the advice is provided.
